Books to be reviewed must:

- Be a part of the young adult collection at the North Babylon Public Library
- Have a publication date within the last five years
- Be approved by the Young Adult Librarian

Once an application is submitted, a librarian will let you know if the book was approved or not. This usually takes a few days. After an application is approved, you have 30 days to complete and submit the review. Do not start reading the book until it has been approved. Only reviews adhering to the guidelines on the Book Review Cover Sheet will earn Community Service Credit.
