SAY A LITTLE PRAYER

BY JENNA VORIS

Riley quietly left church a year ago when she realized there was no place for a bi girl in her congregation. But it wasn't until the pastor shunned her older sister for getting an abortion that she really wanted to burn it all down. It's just her luck, then, that she's sent to the principal's office for slapping a girl talking smack about her sister—and in order to avoid suspension, she has to spend spring break at church camp. The only saving grace is that she'll be there with her best friend, Julia. Even if Julia's dad is the pastor. And he's in charge of camp.

But Riley won't let a technicality like "repenting" get in the way of her true mission. Instead of spending the week embracing the seven heavenly virtues, she decides to commit all seven deadly sins. If she can show the other campers that sometimes being a little bad is for the greater good, she could start a righteous revolution! What could possibly go wrong? Aside from falling for the pastor's daughter . . .

Theater star Teddy McGuire is ready for all his dreams to come true. He and his best friend, Annie, have been counting down the days to the end-of-the-year drama club trip to New York City. To make it even more magical, if they can win the annual scavenger hunt, they'll get a chance to meet their popstar idol, Benji Keaton.

But the universe has other plans: when Annie can't go on the trip, Teddy is forced to room with tech crew loner Sebastian.

On a larger-than-life adventure across the city, the boys will discover a lot more than what's on their checklist, including masquerade mishaps, obstacles of Jurassic proportions, Hollywood starlets, and, most surprisingly of all, the sparks that beginning to fly between them. In a story about chasing your destiny, Teddy and Sebastian are about to learn the secret to making their own luck.

WHAT IS THIS FEELING?

Marco should be at university, studying biomedicine. Instead, he's been sent to live on a cruise ship in the Mediterranean with his estranged uncle, all because of a 'blip' everyone else is convinced was a panic attack. (Which it most definitely was not.)

And even though Marco's trip is supposed to provide answers – about himself, about his family – all he finds on board the Ocean Melody are more and more questions. But then his best friend CeCe proposes that for someone who has always done the right thing, in every possible way, it's time for Marco to get a few things wrong. And hooking up with a hot dancer from the ship is only the beginning . . .

Taylor and Marianna were best friends, running partners and practically sisters until Marianna moved away and Taylor promptly ghosted her. When they end up on the same cross-country team three years later, everything is a competition and a reminder of past feelings, as well as blossoming new ones.

Marianna runs because she's angry. The oldest child of a single mother, she knows all about responsibility. She just has to stay focused if she wants to secure a new, brighter future.

Taylor runs to prove herself. The only child of an almost-Olympian, she's no stranger to high expectations. With enough effort, she knows she can make her parents proud. Then, she can figure out her own passion. She definitely doesn't have time to untangle her feelings towards Mari.

Can this pair figure out a way to work together before their past catches up with them?
