ELIZA, FROM SCRATCH
BY SOPHIA LEE

Eliza Park's senior year will be perfect: She's going to be salutatorian, give a tear-jerking graduation speech in front of her parents, and enjoy her last year with her equally ambitious best friends. But when a scheduling mishap enrolls her in Culinary Arts, Eliza is suddenly the most clueless person in the class. Her typical title of star student belongs to the aggravatingly arrogant Wesley Ruengsomboon, a charming Thai American boy whose talent in the kitchen leaves Eliza both awed and annoyed.

With her rank on the line, Eliza's only hope is to snatch the midterm cooking contest win from Wesley, however improbable that may be. Add in the flavor of her grandmother's Korean recipes, the heat of being class partners with Wesley, and the sweetness of unexpected feelings—and Eliza must now rebuild everything she knew about success, love, and what it means to be herself, from scratch.

Moon Minseok, Moonster, is the jokester of the world's most popular K-Pop group. But they are drowning in dating scandals, and it's time for him to take charge of the group's image.

Shin Hyeri, an up-and-coming K-Drama actress, has been dealing with some scandals of her own. She's desperate to show the world that she isn't a "nepo baby" or a bully and doesn't want to let her rising star crash and burn.

When these two childhood enemies get caught up in yet another scandal there's only one thing that will save both of their reputations: appear on the tv show Our Celebrity Marriage.

The plan is simple—pretend to get along, win back the fans, then go their separate ways. But what happens when a fake marriage leads to real feelings? Will they bow to the pressures of their famous realities, or will they decide their love is something worth fighting for?

IT'S NOT ME, IT'S YOU BY ALEX LIGHT

Jackie Myers is a fraud. The thing is, she secretly runs "pleasebreakmyheart," a gone-viral account aimed at breaking hearts and ending relationships—and she just used it to break up her insufferable eternal nemesis's picture-perfect relationship.

Wilson is the buttoned-up, type-A assistant manager of her nightmares, but it turns out he's also, apparently, a really great boyfriend.

So with her conscience (and paycheck) on the line, Jackie decides there's only one thing to do: She's going to help Wilson win his ex-girlfriend back. Which should be easy, considering Jackie hates him... right?

Irene Park loves romance novels. But Irene's real life dating story? Non-existent. So when she starts her freshman year of college, she sets her sights on finding true love using the one thing she really understands...romance book tropes.

Enter Aiden Jeon, Irene's online book review rival and biggest nemesis. Aiden challenges her to see who can find love-by-trope first, but when the competition takes an unexpected turn, then fake dating, Irene is not prepared for everything she believed about romance, and Aiden, to flip on its head.

As Irene tackles the challenges of college life, she struggles to figure out what she really wants for herself, all while trying to win the race for love. She realizes the all the answers may not be found in romance novels. Happily Ever Afters seem so easy, but for Irene she'll have to get her nose out of her books and become the main character of her own story.
